Since December I have been suffering from Pneumonia resulting in extended office absences. My paralegal charged with checking Pacer failed to do so and has been asked to leave. This of course is my responsibility and I have engaged Barak Cardenas, Esq., admitted to the Southern District in 2008 to serve as co-counsel and review all files. He has found missed deadline with regard to this Order. I apologize to the court and request that my client not be penalized for my illness.
